Matinée du français 2009 Les examens à la portée de vos élèves de terminale

A morning of vital information on the final exams where your students can

- learn some of the do's and don'ts for both oral and written exams.
- see performances of the oral exam.
- take home some practice reading passages and some sample questions for general conversation.
- fill in a listening grid based on practice listening comprehension topics.

Experienced, current Year 12 teachers will give your students details about the exams and information on how to maximize their performance in both.
