The AFTV is happy to announce the 2009 series of classes in French for practising teachers to improve/maintain skills in spoken French. These classes will commence on Tuesday 24th March and will run for five weeks in Term 2. They will be led by Namasté Gadbois, a native speaker. A certificate of participation will be provided to those who attend.

In order for the course to run, we require a minimum of 8 participants. The classes will be conducted entirely in French and are geared for those who wish to maintain a reasonable level of fluency or develop a better one. In order to serve participants' interests, please indicate on the reply slip any specific topics you would like to explore during these classes. Please remember that this PD activity is for language maintenance, not methodology.
